

ROYAL ADELAIDE HOSPITAL
Research Ethics Committee Membership

01 January 2016

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The Royal Adelaide Hospital Human Research Ethics Committee (RAH HREC) is constituted and functions in accordance with the National Statement on Ethical Conduct in Research involving Humans (2007), incorporating all updates. The Committee also operates according to ICH Good Clinical Practice Guidelines and applicable regulations.

The composition is in accordance with the guidelines for Institutional Ethics Committee Composition as set out in the NHMRC National Statement.

It is the policy of both the RAH Human Research Ethics Committee that the names of the regular members are not released.

The following are the classifications of the Committee members (effective from 1 January 2016):

Category	Gender	Employed by RAH / CALHN / SA Pathology
Chairperson, Medical Scientist, Retired	Male	N
Female – One Qualified Lawyer	Female	N
Layman	Male	N
Laywoman	Female	N
Laywoman, Ethicist, Statistician	Female	N
Minister of Religion	Male	N
Allied Health / Counselling Professional	Male	N
Registered Nurse	Female	Y
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Male	Y
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Male	Y
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Female	Y
Clinician, Retired, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Male	N
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Female	Y
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Female	Y
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Female	Y
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Male	Y
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Male	Y
Clinician, Medical Graduate with Research Experience	Male	Y

This Committee confirms that no Investigators of studies with a conflict of interest are present at either the Human Research Ethics Committee Meeting or the Investigational Drugs Subcommittee Meeting, at the time of discussion, and took no part in the approval process.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Heather O'Dea
Team Leader, Executive Officer
HUMAN RESEARCH ETHICS COMMITTEE